PRESIDENT'S REPORT

On behalf of the Management Committee of the Singapore Chinese Girls' School Alumni, I am pleased to present the Annual Report for the year ended 31st December 2008.

MEMBERS' FUND AND MEMBERSHIP

For the year ended 31st December 2008, 33 members were matriculated, bringing the total membership of the Alumni to 1,576. Members' Fund registered an increase of $2,215, to $108,952.

EVENTS IN 2008

The 30th AGM held on 5th April was a great success with lunch at Spices Room in School, followed by a fashion show. Avana Boutique organized the show while alumni members, young and 'mature', did the modeling.

Highlights of the year included the SCGS Carnival 2008 held on 19th April. Alumni sponsored several stalls and helped raise funds for Straits Times Pocket Money Fund and children suffering from crisis in Dafur (through the United Nations of Singapore and UNICEF). A portion of money raised at the carnival was also channeled to the School Building Development Fund.

On 17th September, an Evening of Poetry was held at Jade Springs Courtyard in School. It was an enjoyable evening attended by some 30 alumni members. We enjoyed poetry reading by poetess Ms. Angeline Yap, and also readings by Miss Rosalind Heng, Mrs. Florence Phuah and former school registrar, Mrs. Julie Lee.

At the school graduation ceremony on 14th Nov, the Alumni presented the Tan Sock Kern award to Miss Eryn Chan Ling Yi, the Head Prefect and a Special Merit award to Miss Rachel Lee Mun Yee. Each graduate was presented with a thumb-drive as a commemorative gift for the occasion.

We worked closely with the school to organize the SCGS 110th Anniversary Dinner to be held on 25th July 2009. Our Members have also contributed recipes towards a coffee table recipe book which will be published to commemorate our 110th Anniversary.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On behalf of the Management Committee, I would like to thank Mrs. Low Ay Nar, Principal of SCGS and Advisor to the Alumni, and also the Vice-principals of SCGS, for their valued advice. I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to members of the Management Committee and the Honorary Auditors for their time and unstinting support.

The Management Committee also thanks all alumni members for their participation, generous donations and support of the Alumni and School functions.
